Of this number, 4,763 were registered from East Liverpool, 2,986 from Salem and 908 from Lisbon. The total revenue from the sale of license plates in the county for this period was $143,262.26, which is divided between the county and the state.

The motor population of the state of Ohio is 1,711,026 automobiles according to a statement issued Wednesday by Secretary of State Clarence J. Brown.

Increased Over 1928

This is an increase of 81,917 cars over the total number in the state at this period last year and an increase of 202,727 cars over the previous year.

The total revenue from the sale of license plates in the state during the past year was $115,491,64, an increase of $1,043,778.44 over the previous 12 months. This money is divided equally between the state and the district from which the automobile is registered.

The Department of Motor Vehicles under the direction of Secretary of State Brown and in charge of Commissioner of Motor Vehicles Chalmers Wilson is the fastest growing department of the state. In 20 years, from 1908 to 1928, the registrations have increased from 10,469 to 1,711,026 or 16,000 per cent.

Registrations Are Many

Thirty six county auditors and 482 deputy commissioners were necessary to handle the registrations during the past year. Hundreds of extra clerks were added to the state during the rush period at the close.

Passenger cars, 1,440,900; trucks, 198,658; motorcycles, 4,101; side cars, 2,362; trailers, 14,570; dealers, 3,988 and certified plates, 23,374. State, city and county owned cars total 10,097.

Former Gangster Chieftain Asks World To Forget Him

Capone Wishes to Live In Peace On Beautiful
Florida Estate

By JAMES L. KILGALLAN

Miami Beach, Fla., Feb. 22.—Al Capone of Chicago, the man who is never interviewed, was interviewed today in intimate fashion by this writer on the veranda of his secluded mansion on Palm Island, overlooking beautiful Biscayne bay. And this man, who is one of America's first page personalities about whom there is an impenetrable aura of mystery, revealed that above everything else he would like to drop out of the limelight.

"I am sick and tired of publicity," said Capone. "I want no more of it. It puts me in a bad light. I just want to be forgotten."

Capone had just taken a plunge in his private swimming pool. He was sitting on the porch. Attired in a striped bathrobe when this reporter, accompanied by Izzy Kaplan, one of the newest photographers in the country, entered the Capone estate. Kaplan wanted to take pictures of Capone but he would not allow it although he did permit the cameraman to take outside "shots" of his magnificient $1,000 mansion.

Never Carr's Gun

"Is it true?" I asked Capone, "that you always carry a bodyguard?"

"It is not," he replied quickly. "Why should I? I am a peaceable citizen. No, I do not carry a gun. If I did I would be breaking the law, and I am not breaking the law."

Capone reiterated that he knows nothing whatever of the massacre of seven men in mysterious Chicago gangland killing recently. He said his chief interest at present is real estate.

His main worry right now is the illness of his only son, Al Capone, Jr., ten years old, who has undergone four mastoid operations. The boy is at the estate here, recuperating.

Capone had a tutor for the boy but has dismissed him as the child needs rest more than anything else.

Capone said he would give Al, Jr., a college education—"the best education that money can buy." Capone

INFLUENZA WAS NOT SERIOUS IN COLUMBIANA CO.

Annual Health Report Shows 103 Cases In Rural Area

NO FATALITIES ARE TRACED TO DISEASE

64 Diphtheria Cases Are Reported; Disease
Claims Five

Despite the fact that 103 cases of influenza were reported in rural areas of the county, during the recent epidemic, no fatalities occurred, according to the annual report of County Health Commissioner Dr. T. T. Church.

Three hundred and ninety deaths occurred in the district served by the board in 1928 while 538 births were reported.

During the year 64 cases of diphtheria were reported and five deaths resulted from this cause.

There were 63 cases of measles charted during the year and 28 cases of scarlet fever. Out of the 10 cases of tuberculosis four deaths resulted and no deaths resulted in any of the six cases of typhoid fever. There was one death in the 60 cases of whooping cough.

Schools Supervised

The report also discloses there are 31 district boards of education in the health district under the supervision of the health commissioner's office, but none of these boards have adopted resolutions requiring vaccination of pupils as a condition precedent to attendance at school.

During 1928 the health department had supervision over a children's health camp, this continuing over a period of six weeks. This camp was under the direction of the Columbian County Public Health League, of which Attorney George L. Lafferty of Lisbon is secretary.

We plan to use a tri-motored Junkers plane equipped with pontoons on the flight. Junkers monoplanes, similar in type to the Bremen in which we crossed the Atlantic last year, will be stationed at Lisbon, Portugal and Horta, Azores. They will meet us above those cities and refuel our plane in the air.

"Our flight will only be the first of many. It will be made mainly for the purpose of studying the problems to be met by a permanent transatlantic air service."

Refueling in the air means greater progress in aviation. By its use, I can foresee the time when a non-stop flight around the world will be a reality."

Fourteen tourists camps are located in this country, and under the supervision of the health office.

A total of 212 diphtheria specimens were sent last year to the State Department of Health laboratories, for examination.

Names of Men Held Not Disclosed:
Arrests Follow Taking Of Two Suspects

Chicago, Feb. 22.—Five men were arrested here today in connection with the finding of the murderers' automobile, used by slayers in the North Side massacre of seven gangsters.

Deputy Commissioner of Police John Stege said he had "twelve witnesses" to be used in the prosecution of the slayers.

Stege said he had "definite information" coupling the murders to former henchmen of "Scarface" Al Capone, now in the "gangster field" independent of their former leader who has retired.

Police seized two men in a cafe today and from names found in the pockets of one, they arrested three more. All are held incommunicado.

Funeral service at 2:30 p. m. Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Crawford, in charge of Dr. P. H. Gordon; interment in Hope cemetery.

Wilmington, O., Feb. 22.—Lawrence Patton, 28, reputed to be worth several thousands of dollars, but who gathered paper on the streets and sold it for a living, was dead here today, a victim of a motorist.

He died yesterday from injuries suffered last week when struck by an auto.

The man had been hit and injured by cars on five different occasions.

Work Continues On
Akron Airship Dock

Akron, Feb. 22.—Despite cold weather handicaps practically all ground work for the 1,200 foot zeppelin dock being erected by the Goodyear-Zeppelin Corporation, is practically finished and steel erection is expected to begin within a few weeks, it was announced today.

Officials of the corporation have replaced the more familiar name of "hangar" with "dock" in order to distinguish the buildings housing heavier than air and lighter than air machines.

Injuries Fatal

Ashland, Feb. 22.—Injuries suffered when his automobile was struck by a westbound Nickel Plate passenger train proved fatal today to E. L. Drake, 55, Geneva, (O.) rural mail carrier. Drake was placed aboard the train and rushed to the Geneva Community hospital. He had been in the government mail service 20 years. The accident occurred at the Saybrook Center crossing.

Lisbon, Feb. 22.—James Kelly, alias John Burbright of Lima, who was indicted by a special grand jury two weeks ago with Ernest Bonanna for robbing the Standard Oil Co.'s filling station at East Liverpool of $50, went before Judge W. F. Lones in common pleas court shortly after 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon and entered a plea of guilty to the indictment.

He was immediately sentenced to serve not less than 15 years nor more than 25 years in the Ohio penitentiary.

Att'y D. J. Lapela of Niles, had a conference with Kelly before he was taken before the court by Sheriff William J. Barlow. When Kelly was being sentenced he appeared to be much disturbed.

The case against Bonanna will be disposed of later by the court, it was announced immediately after Kelly was sentenced.

Bonanna, since he was indicted has created trouble at the county jail. He has been shamming insanity according to two physicians who have examined him.

He has been kept in solitary confinement from time to time, and at night would disturb other prisoners.

It has not been determined by Sheriff Barlow when Kelly will be taken to Columbus, and he may be held here until the indictment against Bonanna has been disposed of.

GO SOUTH, YOUNG MAN

While the West was still young, Horace Greeley told young men to go west and grow up with the country. If he were with us today, he might be pointing his finger in another direction and telling young men to go south.

Colvin B. Brown, manager of the commercial organization department of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, has recently directed our attention to the rapid strides being made in the South.

"I think," he said, "that no part of the nation is progressing faster than the southern and southwestern states." This statement we must take as one which comes from a man who should know whereof he speaks; it is the result of a keen observation of the situation. Perhaps no man in the country has a better chance to see the general trends of progress as has Mr. Brown.

For long decades we have thought that the South was dependent upon on industry—cotton. It appears, however, that while that might have been true in the past it is no longer a fact. Cotton, it is true remains the staple crop and the one which contributes most to southern well-being.

We might be surprised to know, however, that but one-fourth of the farm acreage is devoted to it. The southern farmer has learned to put his trust in a diversity of crops. No longer does the South stake all of its prosperity upon cotton.

The truck crops have in recent years taken on gigantic proportions. In the industrial fields the coal and iron activities in Alabama have opened a new chapter. The development of water power forecasts further advances which will remove the depressing conditions which accompany the ups and downs of the cotton market.

Nor is the South alone to benefit, according to Mr. Brown.

Prosperity in one section of the nation is beneficial to the whole land. There is a tendency for each section to supply its own needs, and in the effort it creates a surplus which is another name for the creation of wealth. This surplus increases its purchasing power and brings it into the market for the products of other communities."

What Others Say

STOCK GAMBLING

The action of the federal reserve board to restrain the use of federal reserve bank credit for speculative purposes was bound to be protested by those who are interested in maintaining the present bull market in Wall street.

This market hasn't "just grow'd." Certain financially powerful individuals and pools have directed it from the beginning. They don't want to be frozen out now, while the game is still young, and they can count on the support of thousands of the small fry that have followed the market and won, while other thousands have lost.

The protest of these parties need not be taken any more seriously than the unrestrained language of certain congressional foes of stock speculation. Unquestionably legitimate business has first claim on the credit of the country; and that this claim shall not be impaired by the excessive use of credit for speculative purposes is all the federal reserve board apparently seeks to establish. The stocks and bonds listed on the exchange have a definite commercial value. This value changes from time to time, as the earning power of the securities fluctuates, but at any given moment it is fixable. The difference between this definite commercial value and the fictional value to which the securities are run up or down by speculation represents a burden from which legitimate business derives no tangible benefit.

As long as stock gambling does not interfere with the proper function of the stock market, which is to provide a means of buying and selling securities, all well and good. Those who engage in it are taking their own risks. They are like men gambling with cards, who can afford to lose if they have to. When, however, they employ for this purpose credit required for legitimate business they invite the same restraint that should be placed on men who gamble away their wages, while their wives and children have to go hungry and unclothed.—Detroit Free Press.

EAR PAINS MAY LEAD TO SERIOUS TROUBLE

grow careless about it. It is unwise to disregard the warning. In every instance give it the attention it deserves.

Answers to Health Queries

M. S. Q.—I am 17 years of age, have never worn high-heeled shoes, and would like to know if they are detrimental to my health and how?

A—Too high heels are bad as they throw the body weight in such a way as to produce strain.

R. B. Q.—Is it possible to inherit a discontented nature?

2—Can a nature of this kind be cured or helped in anyway?

A—Yes

2—I would suggest that you practice self-control. Self-control must be cultivated and does not come overnight. Be patient and make up your mind not to let things upset you. Persist in this attitude and you will soon find that you are able to control yourself to a great extent.

B. F. Q.—How much should a girl aged 20, 5 ft. 5 1/2 inches tall weigh, also a girl aged 17, 5 ft. 3 1/2 inches tall?

2—Is white bread more fattening than potatoes?

3—Is once a week too often to shampoo the hair?

A—They should weigh respectively about 125 and 118 pounds.

2—No.

3—No.

It is not at all uncommon to have an infection or contagious disease cause more or less inflammation of the lining membrane of the nose. It is very easy for the trouble to creep up the tube from the nose to the ear and produce inflammation in that organ.

Think of a little child having such a symptom. You can well understand why it cries out in agony.

Measles is one of the diseases which has earache as a symptom. Scarlet fever is another. Influenza may have ear trouble as one of the many serious complications.

Have you ever thought how near the ear is to the brain? Back of the ear and opening into the middle ear are the honeycomb cavities in the bone.

These spaces, known as the mastoid cells, are very near to the inner surface of the bone. Resting on this surface of bone is the brain substance, separated by a layer of bone sometimes no thicker than paper.

If the nose and ear contain fluid teeming with pus-producing germs we have all the makings for serious trouble. The germs creep into the honeycomb cells I have mentioned. Pus forms so rapidly that it cannot drain away. In such a case the bony wall may be broken down and the brain itself is bathed in pus.

Bear in mind that you must not neglect baby's running ear or for that matter, anybody's running ear. The ear is too close to the brain to be overlooked as a cause of trouble.

All ear symptoms demand a consultation with your family doctor. He will advise as to what should be done.

Earache is such a common thing among children that we are apt to see it as a normal condition.

COURT NEWS

Administratrix Named
In the matter of the estate of the late Harvey Pitcher of Wellsville, Mary Pitcher of Cleveland has been appointed administratrix with bond set at $400.

Alimony Action Dismissed
The alimony action filed in common pleas court May 21, 1928, by Maggie Best against her husband, James Best, has been dismissed by the court for want of prosecution and at the costs of the plaintiff.

Named Marshal

Columbus, Feb. 22.—Billy S. Clifford of Urbana, and familiar figure on the American stage, today had been appointed by Gov. Cooper as a deputy state fire marshal. Clifford will have charge of Champaign, Logan, Union and Athens counties. The appointment, it is said, came as a reward for Clifford's work in Cooper's recent campaign.

REPORTED ILL

Washington, Feb. 22.—The rumor factory set up in the snowbanks outside 2390 S street continued to grind today despite the flat statement that President-elect Hoover is not going to let the public in on the personnel of his cabinet until March 4.

Out of the mass of reports, hot tips and speculations, however, one new name emerged as a cabinet position which possesses the elements of likelihood. That was Clarence Wooley, of Connecticut, president of the American Radiator company, to be secretary of commerce.

Having personified built up the department of commerce to its present status of efficiency, Mr. Hoover is scrutinizing the list of candidates to fill his shoes with a microscope, so to speak. Proponents of Wooley contend he fills the bill in every respect.

During the eight years Mr. Hoover served as secretary of commerce, few economic crises developed but what Wooley was called in. He and the president-elect have been eye-to-eye on matters of program and policy and each has a profound respect for the ability of the other.

Police Find Still

Akron, Feb. 22.—Joseph Lucchesi, 37, was in county jail here today on a charge of transporting liquor. Deputy sheriffs said they picked him up as he was enroute to deliver two gallons of whiskey. At his home a 50-gallon still was found in operation with 275 gallons of alleged whiskey and 400 gallons of mash. The county vice squad made the capture.

Leon Trotsky who has been deported from Russia is reported seriously ill in Turkey.

Laughter Puts Joke
on the Fault-Finder

As long as life lasts, we shall find that troublesome, unpleasant person, who seems incapable of saying a single word without finding fault.

And there's nothing to choose on this point between men and women. Some of the former can be really bad at the game. For, after all, it is a silly game, which may become a menace to our peace of mind.

It seems to be an inseparable part of the mind of some folk—this fault finding. Often it is based on mere nothing.

There's one thing these pernickety people don't like. They hate you very badly if you laugh at them. It upsets their rhythm. And most of the fault-finders work to a rhythm. Put them off it and they are undone.

Of course, says the London Chronicle, there are more ways than one of laughing at them. You don't need to laugh outright. A twinkle of the eye, a steady-nimbed look, a sly dig—metaphorically, of course, although a nice Eighteenth century one wouldn't be amiss sometimes—a bit of leg-pulling; any of these methods are warranted to distract the lines of attack of these fault-finders.

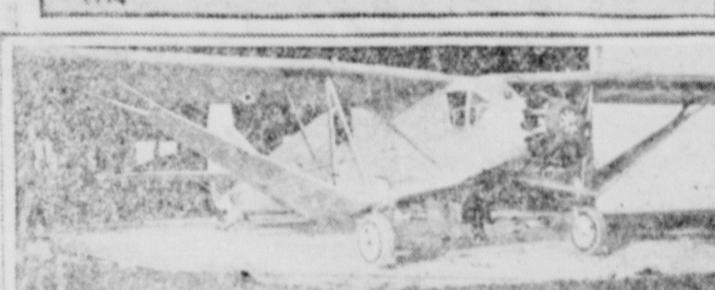

No, indeed; they can't stand being laughed at.

said he knows what it is to miss a good education.

"I only went as far as fourth grade in Grammar school," he remarked regretfully.

Receives Few Visitors

Capone receives a certain restricted number of visitors at his secluded home. Among his callers was Jack Sharkey, who fights Young Stribling at Flamingo park next Wednesday night. On Sharkey's account, Capone broke his rule never to be photographed, and Kaplan took pictures of the two of them together.

"I pick Stribling to win, although for personal reasons I would like to see Sharkey win," Capone said in reply to my question. "I think the many fights that Stribling has had recently will stand him in good stead. He has fought himself into condition."

Capone and a few friends attended the horse races and lost $48,500 on one horse. Capone himself put $27,500 on the horse's nose. A

BUCKLEY HITS BACK AT TRACY

Former Treasurer States Law Silent On Fund Deposits

Columbus, Feb. 22.—Bert B. Buckley, former state treasurer, today replied to the criticism of State Auditor Joseph Tracy that he had allowed the deposits of state funds in 11 Ohio banks without first receiving bids on the amount of interest to be paid.

Buckley's statement follows:

"The law is silent where the list of bidding banks has been exhausted and there is still money in the treasury which for the people should receive an increased interest rate and in this case the interest for the state was practically doubled by me. The funds, placed at an average of 4 per cent interest, were drawing but 2 per cent in Columbus banks."

"I never benefited personally by this but the people of Ohio did. Only gilt-edged bonds were accepted as surely."

In his report, which followed the resignation of Buckley, Tracy said that state funds totaling $1,325,000 were placed in 11 Ohio banks without these banks submitting bids.

Tracy alleged that this was not allowed by law.

Most of the banks were in Dayton and the State bank at Bowling Green was also included.

Buckley, recently convicted in federal court on attempted bribery and liquor conspiracy charges, faces a maximum term of 28 years in the federal penitentiary. He will be sentenced March 11.

Columbiana High Battles Way To Finals In Class B Tourney

Initial Round Of Race Held At Salem Gym

Finals Will Start Tonight At 7:30 In Struggle For County Title

Columbiana High won its way into the final of the Columbiana county Class B elimination tournament, at the Salem High gym, last night, easily annexing a 43-14 decision over Fairfield High basketeers, in the opening round of play.

The Red and White cagers put out the classiest exhibition of basketball displayed in the tourney, and will meet the winner of the Salemville-Rogers High clash, in the closing contest of the tourney tonight.

Rogers High, tormented by Lloyd Loop, Salem High grad, stepped into the limelight by handing New Waterford a 20-13 setback, in the first game of the boys' series. Waterford is also coached by a former Salem High student, Emmor Ackel, who graduated with Loop in 1923 from the Red and Black school.

Semi-Finals

Rogers was scheduled to meet Salemville, who drew a bye, in the boys' semi-final, this afternoon. The survivor will clash with Columbiana for the title.

Columbiana put up a hot demonstration of basket-shooting in the first half, rolling up a 32-6 total for the first half on Coach Miller's lads.

Red and White reserves played part of the second quarter and the entire last half, and were given a tight battle by the Fairfield scrappers, who, however, were unable to threaten the overwhelming lead.

Finals Tonight

Fairfield and Columbiana girls will clash in the final game of the girls' section for the championship at 7:30 tonight, in a preliminary to the boys' titular battle, as a result of their victories in the first round.

Columbiana defeated Salemville, 17-9, while Fairfield managed a 14-9 verdict over New Waterford High's sextet.

In Playhouses Of Salem

"Mutt and Jeff," Bud Fisher's famous cartoon classics, will appear at the Grand theatre the rest of this week in the famous showing of the story of "Mutt and Jeff on their Honeymoon."

The stage play is shown together with "Morgan's Raid," a screen feature which stars Tim McCoy, in the famous story of the historical raid.

ALL AT SEA

Karl Dane and George K. Arthur, that riotous film comedy team, sail into the State theatre tonight under the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer flag, bearing a cargo of laughs and hilarious entertainment, the reason being that they are at their best in their new farce-comedy, "All at Sea."

Just about the time we begin to think there is nothing new under the motion picture sun, a company turns out a fun riot like this new co-starring comedy and upsets all traditions and turns audiences inside out with guffaws and roars.

Herewith is the solution to yesterday's puzzle:

HOME-MAKING HELPS

By Wanda Barton

Ridding the Household of Insect Pests

There are a number of pests that invade even the most carefully kept homes and it is often a problem to know how to deal with them. Good traps will usually take care of mice, but they must be properly baited, set near the mouseholes, and carefully checked after frequent use. A bit of smoked bacon, or a toasted cheese cracker are most effective as bait.

Many houses seem to be frequented by ants. The first step in getting rid of these pests is the removal of all substances that attract them. Place foods in glass or pottery containers. Sweets and meats are their especial attraction. The use of repellents such as camphor, naphthalene flakes, cedar oil, and powdered mothballs will sometimes effect the cure. Sometimes a sponge placed in a deep pan wet with sweetened water will attract an ant when loaded set under boiling water and destroy them in this way. The most effective method is poison, which may used if there are no ants about. A syrup poisoned with arsenate of soda is a pound of sugar dissolved in a quart of water, to which add 125 grains of arsenate of soda, and then cook a few minutes, strain and cool. Wet the sponges in this and use as directed. Follow the ants to the source of entrance and set the basin with the sponge at that point. Red or black ants will succumb to the same treatment.

Two excellent and well-loved character actors, Nelson McDowell and Buck Connor, are also seen in "Grit Wins." Enacting the roles of friendly enemies who have squabbled for 25 years over a few feet of property, the two men furnished much lively interest in the picture.

Water bugs, crickets, or cockroaches as they are called, are hard to get rid of in apartments, where they follow the water pipes from one apartment to another, in a private house it is easier. Perfect foot protection using tight containers, removal of all wet cloths, prompt removal of garbage, is the first step. Then go over shelves, cracks and crannies with powerful insect powder, to destroy nests. Then spread slices of potato with phosphorous paste and lay around on shelves, floor, and places where they have been in the habit of coming from. Every three days renew the potato sandwiches. The bugs eat the paste and die. The nests having been broken up, the supply gives out and as long as the poison is renewed and kept fresh freedom will be gained. In a house one such battle is usually sufficient, but in an apartment it must be waged more persistently.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN—a Simple Remedy for a Widespread Evil!

Many a man has suddenly realized that he was losing out—all because he neglected constipation so long. This evil scourge starts with such little things. A headache. A listless morning. A cloudy complexion.

But all the while it saps strength, kills initiative, steals ambition. And if allowed to continue to poison the system, it may bring on serious disease. Women know it as the deadly enemy of youth and beauty. Men, as ability's cruellest foe.

Eamon De Valera was going to Belfast to open a bazaar but Ulster held to the order barring him from Northern Ireland and arrested him at Newry when he attempted to cross the border.

THINGS TO KNOW ABOUT OUR SERVICE

When 2,000 Candles Burned
at Washington's State Dinner

Proud indeed were our Colonial forefathers of their First President, fairly showering him with appreciation for the gallant leadership that won our independence. At a great state dinner in his honor, the banquet hall glistened with the light of 2,000 candles. Historians recorded the cost of this illumination—at $10 because it was an unheard-of extravagance.

Today, light equivalent to 2,000 candles is provided by 50 electric lamps of 50 watts for 18 cents an hour. But the glow of 2,000 candles in a big banquet hall would be far too feeble for our modern requirements.

LEETONIA

The Kiwanis club program committee consisting of I. F. Mellinger, Dr. Paul H. Beaver and John A. Woodward were in charge of the program put on at the meeting of the club, Tuesday evening, in the Presbyterian church at which time the women of the church served dinner.

The program consisted of a one act play, "The Lotus Flower," given by the High School Dramatic club, under the direction of Miss Hazel Bechtold. The cast consisted of the Misses Mary Frances Johnson, Helen Berg, Genevieve Cimineil and Catherine Cope. Teddy Helt, and Gerald Beltempo. A vocal duet by Mrs. Mary Frances Johnson and Helen Berg and Mrs. Mary Kathryn Cavanaugh gave two clever humorous readings. Despite the heavy fall of snow the attendance was very good. The meeting next Tuesday, will be in the Presbyterian church and at this time the farmers of the community will be guests of the Kiwanians at the dinner and program following.

Leetonia Chapter No. 253, Order of Eastern Star, will have a party tonight. The entertainment has prepared an interesting program. The first of the series of meetings of the Lenten Week of Prayer and Self-Denial, held by the two Missionary societies of St. Paul's Lutheran church, was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. S. Gruner. The meeting was opened with a contralto solo, "Jesus Calls Us," by Mrs. F. W. Fleding; Mrs. I. F. Very dirty pans? No, very hard water

The pots and pans weren't very greasy. But the water was hard. It mixed with the soap, and formed scum? How could pots and pans get clean? They just had to stay greasy! Then needed a cleaner!

That was before Melo's time. Now hard water, softened with Melo, becomes a very fine cleaner, with or without soap. Dirty ring? Scum? Grease? All gone. Soap much more effective! Pots and pans? Shiny and gleaming! At 10c a can you can afford to buy three—one for the kitchen, laundry, and bathroom.

Ohio Resident Gains Glorious Health From 3 Bottles of New Konjola; Praises It To All Sufferers

MRS. DAVID CUPP

"After years of suffering I have been restored to health through the use of Konjola, the new medicine, and I heartily recommend it to all sufferers," said Mrs. David Cupp, R. F. D. No. 8, Lancaster, Ohio.

"Four years of stomach trouble and sixteen years of kidney trouble had made life almost unbearable. After each meal quantities of gas formed, making my heart palpitate wildly and affecting my nervous system. My back was sore and filled with pain. Night rising broke up my sleep. I became more rundown with each passing day and was at a loss to know what to do for myself."

"I had been reading so much about the merits of Konjola that I decided to give it a trial. It turned out to be exactly what I needed and went right to the source of my ailments—strengthening my organs. Three bottles of this medicine did the work. Today my stomach and kidneys are functioning perfectly. It is a wonderful thing to have my health back again. I know now why Konjola is called the master medicine."

Konjola is sold in Salem, O., at J. H. Lease drug stores, and by all the best druggists in all town throughout this entire section.—Adv.

LOANS up to $500

The only people who think City Loan service is expensive are those who have never investigated or used it.

A $50 loan costs only $1.35 for a month—$2.60 for two months—or $3.75 for three months on the prompt payment plan. Or you may borrow if you wish as much as $500 and repay it in easy monthly payments upon which there is an average cost of less than $4.50 a month. Straight time loans are also made for farmers at the same reasonable charge.

The new City Loan plan enables you to borrow the amount you need in the quiet, dignified way you prefer and on the terms you want. A loan fitted to your needs and geared to your income is ready for you, should you need it, and the cost is well within your means.
